

DeLong, Howard J.

Casualty
AUG 12 1944

Sgt. Howard J. DeLong has been slightly wounded in action in France, July 27, according to a telegram from the War Department received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson DeLong of Hecktown. The DeLongs have another son in the service, Sgt. Lester DeLong, now in New Guinea, who has made three successful paratroop landings in enemy territory, according to information received by his parents.
