

Pasternak, Anthony

Home On Leave <sup>DEC 5</sup>
After 14 Months
In South Pacific <sup>1944</sup>

Machinist Mate Second Class Anthony Pasternak, who spent the past 14 months in the South Pacific theater of operations, is enjoying a 22-day leave with his sister, Mrs. John Stefanik, at 1330 Easton Avenue. He was recently promoted to his present rank.

A member of a carrier crew, he saw plenty of action. He has been in the combat service since April 1942, participated in the African invasion, and later, while assigned to the South Pacific, he took part in the battles of Saipan and Leyte Gulf, as well as other points presently in possession of the U. S. forces.

At the termination of his leave, he will report at a base on the Pacific coast for assignment.
