

Radle, Bernard J.

Army Accepts 34 City Selectees, Rejects 6 Monday Afternoon

8-25742
Thirty-four Bethlehemites, sent to the Allentown induction center on Monday by Local Draft Board No. 1, were accepted for military service, and six were rejected. It was announced this morning that more than eighty young men, scheduled to report for a final physical examination yesterday, as part of the local board's quota, previously enlisted in the various armed branches.

Those accepted were Bernard J. Radle, 528 Ontario Street; Martin M. Suto, 1401 East Sixth Street; John F. Pors, 523 Fillmore Street; Robert H. Kennedy, 672 Ostrum Street; Leo F. Oschale, 937 East Fourth Street; Joseph T. Duhig, 1232 Chew Street, Allentown; Walter H. Gelden, 705 Ridge Street; Fred Zillinsky, 423 Cherokee Street; Herbert Schadler, Jr., 648 Bradley Street; Joseph F. Soos, 80 C Avenue, Pembroke Trailer Camp; Joseph J. Zozpat, 1110 Railroad Street; Joseph L. Jacobs, 1013 East Fourth Street; Thomas C. Eckert, 1041 East Fourth Street; Frank T. Zylwitis, 542 Montclair Avenue; George J. Sobatsky, 519 East Fifth Street; James Bove, 20 Columbia Street; Joseph W. Greenberg, 552 Ontario Street; Stephen F. Vovasilech, 810 Evans Street; Francis B. Baran, 632 Buchanan Street; Joseph Latzo, 36 West Third Street; Stephen J. Vinkovics, 929 Mechanic Street; John D. Catogas, 116 East Third Street; Julius S. Malik, 1286 East Third Street; Stephen J. Zabrecky, 708 Atlantic Street; Frank J. Krasnai, 1290 East Fourth Street; Albert C. Radgowski, 1403 East Fifth Street; John R. Parker, 1607 East Third Street; Paul Helinsky, 831 Evans Street; Joseph P. Meehan, 328 East Morton Street; Thomas George, 726 Cherokee Street; George A. Xander, 704 Pawnee Street; Jacob A. Saemmer, 730 Ontario Street; Stephen Eyoachak, 320 East Fifth Street; Antonio J. Fernandes, 620 East Third Street.

These selectees, now in the U. S. Army, will leave for a reception center on September 7, Labor Day, it was announced today.

Aug. 25, 1942