

Awarded Medal

Herbert J. Achey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Achey, 706 Maple Street, "for heroic achievement in connection with military operations against the enemy in the vicinity of Fudenbach, Germany, March 20," was awarded the Bronze Star Medal.

The citation accompanying the award read, "When his unit's position was subjected to an intense rocket and mortar barrage and a comrade was wounded, Pvt. Achey courageously moved across perilous terrain, skillfully administered first aid to the injured soldier and evacuated him to a place of safety. Pvt. Achey's heroic actions and unswerving devotion to duty exemplify the indomitable loyalty of the American soldier."

Achey, who has since been promoted to the rank of sergeant, is stationed in Muehlberg, Germany.
