T-SGT. JOHN R. McNAMARA

Technical Sergeant John R. McNamara has been reported missing in action in Germany since November 7 in a War Department telegram received by his wife, the former Anne Sinclair, 57 East Ettwein Street. No details of the circumstances under which he is listed as missing were given.

Sgt. McNamara had been overseas for the past 14 months and saw considerable action through France into Germany with an infantry unit since shortly after the invasion was launched last June.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. McNamara, 430 Birkel Avenue, he was a Liberty High School graduate and an employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company.
