

Keim, Frederick W.

Unit Cited

Pfc. Frederick W. Keim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Keim, 521 Washington Avenue, is now privileged to wear the Meritorious Service Unit insignia as the result of the 70th Reinforcement Depot being recently cited by General Carl Spaatz, commanding general of the United States Strategic Air Forces in Europe.

The Meritorious Service Plaque praises the efficiency demonstrated by the organization in receiving and assigning to duty all Air Force reinforcement personnel from the States as well as perfecting the procedure of redeploying Air Force personnel upon completion of duty in the European Theater of Operations.

Pfc. Keim arrived overseas in October, 1943, and was co-partner with Russell Berger in the restaurant business before entering the service. His brother, Pfc. Elwood B. Keim Jr., who is stationed in the Aleutian Islands, is also with the Air Force.
