

Kelley, Edward W.

Completes Third Year
In Service of Army OCT 25 1944

Pfc. Edward W. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Kelly, 525 Alaska Street, has completed three years of service in the U. S. Army. He entered the armed forces at New Cumberland and started training at Fort Bragg, N. C. After completing his training at camps all over the States, Pfc. Kelly arrived in England in February 1944. In London at the time of the intensive robot bombing, he arrived in France shortly after "D-Day."

A graduate of Bethlehem Catholic High School, he was employed by the law firm of Taylor, Schrader and Taylor and the Coca-Cola Bottling Company.

October 25, 1944