

Rein Smith, Harlan

Triple Chevrons

Harlan Reinsmith U. S. Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Reinsmith of 1533 East Third Street, now wears the chevrons of a sergeant, according to information received by his parents. He is assigned to Company C, 318th Infantry, stationed "somewhere on the West Coast." Sergeant Reinsmith graduated from Bethlehem Technical High School with the Class of '41. On April 19, 1942, he enlisted at the Allentown recruiting office, and was sent to Camp Forrest, Tenn., for his preliminary training. He was later transferred to an army camp in Kansas, and more recently to the West Coast. Before joining the armed forces he was an employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company.
