

Miller, Catherine F.

Nurse Promoted To First Lieutenant

HEADQUARTERS PENINSULAR BASE SECTION, Italy—First Lieutenant Catherine F. Miller, daughter of Joseph F. and Lillian E. Miller, 450 South New Street, Bethlehem, Pa., and a nurse with the 103rd Station Hospital, was recently promoted from second lieutenant.

Lieut. Miller is a graduate of Sheppton High School, Sheppton, Pa., and received her training as a nurse at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Lieut. Miller entered the service on September 1, 1942, and was assigned to Fort Hancock, N. Y., later being transferred to Camp Rucker, Ala. She came overseas on April 29, 1944. She was assigned to the 103rd Station Hospital February 6, 1945, when this unit was located at Florence, Italy.

Since joining 103rd Station Hospital, Lieut. Miller has been on General nurse duty in both the medical and surgical service.

Before entering the service Lieut. Miller was associated with the Woman's Hospital, New York City.

Lieut. Miller wears the Mediterranean Theater Ribbon with three campaign stars, and has served in North Africa, Southern and Northern Italy. A brother, Thomas C. Miller, is with the 323rd Bomb Group in Germany.

July 11, 1945