

Bachman, William Chester

MISS DORIS CLEWELL
MARRIED AT MACADA

SEP 9 - 1942
Is Bride of Ensign William C.
Bachman in St. Thomas Church.

In St. Thomas Church, Macada, this afternoon at 3 o'clock, the marriage of Miss Doris L. Clewell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clewell, 16 East Third Street, and Ensign William Chester Bachman, son of Bertram Bachman and the late Mrs. Bachman, was solemnized by the Rev. Victor J. Bauer, Lutheran pastor.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white mousseline de soie, with Juliet cap and finger-tip veil and carried an old fashioned bouquet of white roses and bouvardia. Her sister, Miss Grace Clewell, her only attendant, was similarly dressed in blue mousseline de soie, with Juliet cap and old-fashioned bouquet of pink roses and blue delphiniums.

James Bachman was his brother's best man and two other brothers, George and Donald Bachman, were ushers.

A reception for the immediate families followed at the home of the bridegroom's father, after which the couple left on a short wedding trip.

The bride is a graduate of Bethlehem High School. The bridegroom, a graduate of Bethlehem High School, Allentown Preparatory School and the School of Engineering at Penn State College, was graduated from the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis on Tuesday.

The bride and her sister attended the graduation ceremonies yesterday with the bridegroom's family.
