

Kalman, Anna

WAC Sergeant

DEC 1 1945

Anna Kalman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kalman, 422 Fourth Avenue, is not letting her brother Louis, an Army Sergeant stationed "somewhere in Iran" get ahead of her. She recently sewed a third chevron on her WAC uniform at Drew Field, Fla., where she is now stationed.

Sgt. Anna Kalman enlisted February 6, 1944 and was sent to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., to complete her basic training. Before entering the service, she was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.
