

Moses, James N.

Lt. James N. Moses
Placed on Inactive
Duty by Navy 27 1945

Lt. James Nicholson Moses, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Moses, 634 Hamilton Avenue, has been released to inactive duty by the Navy's Separation Center at the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

Lt. Moses, whose wife resides in Norristown, entered the Navy in 1942 and participated in the Sicily and Salerno campaigns aboard the USS Savannah. Prior to entering the Navy, Lt. Moses was employed as a chemist by the Devoet Baynolds Company in Louisville, Ky. He graduated from Moravian College in 1939 and received his Master's Degree at Lehigh University.

September 27, 1945