

Galli, Antoinette

WAC in S. Pacific

NOV 4 1944

Recently promoted to Corporal, Antoinette Galli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Galli of 41 North Penrose Street, Quakertown, has arrived in New Guinea, according to word received by her parents. She enlisted May 25, 1943, and received her basic training at Daytona Beach, Fla., and graduated from WAC Branch Army Administration school at Stephen F. Austin state college, Nacogdoches, Texas. Later she was transferred to Headquarters Service Command, Dallas, Texas. She took pre-overseas training at Oglethorpe, Georgia.

Cpl. Galli is a graduate of Quakertown High School class of 1940. Prior to her enlistment she was employed at the Waxman Clothing Factory, Quakertown.

November 4, 1944