

Sheehan, J. P.

Awarded Medal

J. P. Sheehan, son of Patrick F. Sheehan, 427 Taylor Street, was advanced to Petty Officer 1/C at his base in the Philippines. A sailor in the U. S. Navy since November 6, 1942, Sheehan completed his boot training at the Great Lakes Naval Station in Illinois and at other bases along the coast before being assigned to active duty. Petty Officer 1/C Sheehan serves aboard the U. S. S. Red Oak Victory. He had been stationed for 20 months in New Hebrides prior to his assignment in the Philippines. He is a former employe of the Kauffman Construction Company in Baltimore, Md.

AUG 22 1945

August 22, 1945