

Viglione, John A.

VIGLIONE PRISONER OF ITAL-IANS, MOTHER IN NAZARETH
HEARS

MAY 28 1943

Mrs. Marion Viglione, 515 South Whitfield Street, Nazareth, has received a telegram from the War Department stating that her son, Pvt. John A. Viglione, is a prisoner of war of the Italian government. The telegram added that the report was received through the International Red Cross and that a letter of information will follow.

Pvt. Viglione was previously reported to be missing in action since March 28, in the North African area. He had been serving with an infantry division in North Africa for seven months, and prior to that time was stationed somewhere in England for three months. He enlisted in the U. S. Army on November 22, 1940.
