

Oricko, Michael

Captain at 26

Michael Oricko, above, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pasquale Oricko, 1223 Broadway, Bethlehem, has been advanced to the rank of captain in the U. S. Army Air Forces. He is 26 years of age. Captain Oricko entered the Army in July of 1941 upon graduation from Clemson College, Clemson, S. C., where he took his degree in civil engineering. He was commissioned a second lieutenant and sent to Fort Benning, Ga., where he remained for five months.

At the end of that period, Captain Oricko was transferred to the Air Corps and sent to Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, where he has been since. He is expected home on a 15-day leave about September 1.

The young officer attended Fountain Hill and Bethlehem High Schools and is a graduate of Allentown Preparatory School and Clemson College. He is a member of the Civil Engineering Society.
