

Connors, James J.
Francis

Brothers Given Staff
Sergeant Rating 22 1944

The sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Connors, 455 South New Street, have attained the same rank in World War II that the father held in World War I. They are James Joseph Connors, staff sergeant, now serving in the New Guinea area, and Francis Thomas Connors, staff sergeant serving in England. James has been in service four years and Francis three years.

June 22, 1944