

Lagouros, John E.

Now a Captain

John E. Lagouros, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lagouros, 536 Seneca Street, who is stationed somewhere in the South Pacific with the Coast Artillery, has been advanced to captain.

Word of his promotion, received April 16 on his 25th birthday, was received by his parents this week. He entered service September 19, 1939 upon graduation from Lehigh University.

Capt. Lagouros served with National Guard while at Lehigh. He attended Moravian Preparatory School and when graduated from the university entered the service as a second lieutenant. He was made a first lieutenant in 1941.

JUN 1 1943

June 1, 1943