

Gonzales, Jasman

Wounded Soldier
Sends Purple Heart
Medal To Wife

MAY 11 1944

Mrs. Helen Gonzales, residing near Hellertown along Bethlehem R. 4, today received the Purple Heart medal awarded her husband, Pvt. Jasman Gonzales, wounded in action in Italy.

Atop the medal, Mrs. Gonzales and her nine-months-old son, Jackie, who has not seen his father, received a letter from the soldier telling them that he is on the road to recovery and that they should not worry. Gonzales has been in the service a year and a half. He was employed at the coke works of the Bethlehem Steel Company before entry into the Army.
