

Thomas, Warren A.

Ruth A. Young
Becomes Bride
Of Army Man

The marriage of Miss Ruth A. Young, niece of Mrs. Fred Smith, of 121 East Union Boulevard, with whom she made her home and daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Young, and Lieut. Warren A. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas, of 1108 Seneca Street, Fountain Hill, took place last evening at 6:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church, North Side. The Rev. Roger Enloe, minister, officiated.

Given in marriage by her cousin, Edward McCance, the bride was gowned in powder blue crepe and carried a colonial bouquet. Miss Jane Adams was her only attendant and was similarly gowned.

David Clayton served as the bridegroom's best man and Richard Williams was usher.

After the ceremony, the couple left on a wedding trip to New York. The bride will return to Bethlehem until September 1 when she will join her husband at Columbus, S. C.

The bride is a graduate of Liberty High School and the Moravian College for Women. She is employed in the auditor's department at Lehigh University. Lieut. Thomas, also a graduate of Liberty High School, attended Lehigh University and was in the employ of the Bethlehem Steel Company. He is a second lieutenant in the infantry, stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C.
