

Carothers III, Neil

Lieut. Carothers To Take
Advanced Flight Training

Lieut. Neil Carothers III, USNR, spent a day in Bethlehem with his parents, stopping off while enroute from the U. S. Naval Air Station at Anacostia Field, D. C., to the U. S. Naval Air Station at Dallas, Texas.

Lieut. Carothers has been on special duty as an aeronautical engineer at Anacostia Field for more than a year. He has been detached from that duty to take advanced flight training in preparation for test pilot work in radar.

June 30, 1943