

Feist, Charles G.

Becomes Bride Of Navy Officer In St. Stephen's

JAN 2 1945
The marriage of Miss Adelle M. Kahler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Kahler, 1140 North New Street and Lieut. (j.g.) Charles G. Feist, U. S. Naval Air Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Feist, of 1321 Montrose Avenue, took place Saturday in St. Stephen's Lutheran Church. The Rev. David H. Frederick performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an aqua suit with matching hat and a corsage of orchids. Mrs. William Shingler was the matron of honor and wore a desert sand suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white camellias.

William Toohy, Jr., of Bethlehem, was best man and Donald Feist and Jay Jones served as ushers.

Milton Buss presided at the organ and played the traditional wedding music.

A reception followed at the DAR House, First Avenue.

The bride was graduated from Bethlehem Business College and was employed in the publications department of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Lieut. Feist recently returned from active duty in the Southwest Pacific. He attended Muhlenberg College, Allentown, before entering the Navy. After a short wedding trip Lieut. and Mrs. Feist will fly to Seattle, Wash., where Lieut. Feist will report for reassignment.

Mr. and Mrs. Kahler entertained the wedding party at dinner Friday evening.

January 2, 1945