

Lunger, James

Buddies United
After Two Years
In Armed Services 1944

Two Bethlehem buddies met yesterday for the first time since they completed their basic Naval training together nearly two years ago. They are James Lunger, Metalsmith 2C, and Joseph Madzik, S1C, who are here on leaves.

Metalsmith Lunger, who has seen action in the Atlantic—counting Ireland, Scotland and Africa among his travels—arrived Thursday on a five-day leave prior to taking advanced training at a fleet welding school in Norfolk, Va. He is visiting with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Newhard, 639 Fourth Avenue. The sailor had been employed in the central tool shop.

Seaman Madzik flew in from a West coast port yesterday to spend a 15-day leave with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rednagle, 925 Itaska Street. A report on his arrival appeared in yesterday's Globe-Times, Page 13.
