

Greenfield, Frank

WRITES FROM AFRICA

Staff Sergeant Frank Greenfield

of 264 Wall Street, Bethlehem, writes from "somewhere in North Africa," to his mother, Mrs. Lyda Greenfield, concerning absenteeism. He says in part: "We hear that they have to offer door prizes or beg these defense workers to do a little overtime work. If they don't want to work, let them say so, for I know a lot of fellows over here who would be willing to work at anything, anytime just to get this thing over with. Send a few of them over here with us and let them get a good taste of long hours. Of course, tell them first that we don't serve whipped cream over here, as I would hate to see those guys give up too much." MAR 23 1943
