

Nemeth, Frank K.
Nemeth, Ernest

Freemansburg Girl Bride of Frank Nemeth

At 3 o'clock this afternoon, Miss Catherine Hebor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hebor, of 79 Clearfield Street, Freemansburg, and Frank Kalman Nemeth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nemeth, of Bethlehem R. D. 4, were married in SS. Peter and Paul Church. The Rev. Alexander Bakaysa officiated.

The bride was gowned in white slipper satin, with a long veil of tulle and lace attached to a peasant headdress imported from Czechoslovakia. Mrs. Betty Remo, of Freemansburg, was matron of honor and Miss Dorothy Nemeth, of Bethlehem R. D. 4, was maid of honor, the former wearing dubonnet and the latter fuchsia gowns and carried chrysanthemums to match their gowns.

Misses Molly Berkes, Helen Gecsek and Anna Van Billiard, of Bethlehem; Betty Worman, of Nazareth; Kathleen Resetar, of Freemansburg, and Mary Casuay, of Bethlehem R. D. 4, were bridesmaids. They all wore toast colored gowns and carried bouquets of bronze pompons.

Pfc. Ernest Nemeth was best man and Richard Geiger, New York City; Charles Hebor and Stephen Hebor, of Freemansburg; Frank Kovacs, of Bethlehem; Stephen Kadar, of Hellertown R. D. 1, and Sgt. Frank Nagy, of Indiantown Gap, were ushers.

A reception followed in the Hungarian Hall, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to New York City and Canada.

The bride attended Bethlehem schools and is employed by the Lehigh Dress Company. The bridegroom was discharged after five years of service in the Army, three of which were in European zones.

October 6, 1945