

Wolk, Charles H., Jr.

Receives Ribbon

Corp. Charles H. Wolk Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wolk Sr., of 1447 Broadway, this city, having discharged his duties in a highly satisfactory manner, received the good Conduct Ribbon at a ceremony held recently at a Sixth Air Force base in the Panama area. The award was made by Brig. Gen. Russell E. Randall, Commanding General of the Sixth Air Force Fighter Command.

OCT 8 1943

Corp. Wolk entered the service in August, 1942. He was transferred to the Panama Canal Department in April of the following year, where he is now serving as a radio mechanic with a fighter squadron.

October 8, 1943