

Naegely, Lawrence R.

ENSIGN NAEGELY WINS VANDERBILT TROPHY

May 8, 1942

Graduated From Training Course
With Highest Average in Class.

For having attained the highest average in the class with which he graduated from his training course at Jacksonville, Fla., Ensign Lawrence Ray Naegely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. Naegely, of 434 East Laurel Street, this city, has been awarded the Vanderbilt Cup, according to word received from his commanding officer at the Jacksonville Naval Air Station.

Ensign L. R. Naegely

Ensign Naegely, an aviator in the U. S. Naval Reserve, now in active service, enlisted in March, 1941, while a student at Lehigh University, where he had studied for three years. Previously he had been graduated from Bethlehem High School with the class of 1937, and for a year had been employed in the Bethlehem Steel Company laboratory.

May 8, 1942