

Dimmick, Ray

Staff Sergeant

DEC 6 1944

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Dimmick, Hellertown, received word of the promotion of their son, Ray Dimmick, to Staff Sergeant somewhere in the Philippines.

Sgt. Dimmick is a graduate of Hellertown High School and had been attending Lehigh University when he entered the service in December, 1942. Assigned to an anti-aircraft unit, he received training in specialized schools at Camp Edwards, Mass.; Camp Davis, N. C.; Fort Bliss, Texas, and Santa Anita, California.

He was transferred to the Pacific Theater of Operations June, 1944, and took part in the Leyte and Philippine invasions.
