

Smith, Arthur

Enjoy Holiday Furloughs

Among the many Bethlehem service men and women home over the Thanksgiving holiday on furlough were the following:

Cpl. Arthur Smith, home from Camp Stewart, Ga., and Samuel D. Sweeney, S2C, home from sea duty with a mine sweeper. The two are old chums, Sweeney being the son of the late Samuel Sweeney and Mrs. Sweeney, of 600 Sioux Street, and Smith, the son of Mrs. Edna Smith, of 638 Jischke Street.

Cpl. Smith also had the pleasure of greeting his wife, Pvt. Alice Smith of the WAC, who returned from Fort Des Moines, Ia., to eat turkey at the family table.

Also Oliver F. Wallace, home from Great Lakes Naval Training Station at Great Lakes, Ill.; Henry T. Rae, Quakertown, home from Camp Lee, Va.; Charles Sturdevant, Jr., S2C, also home from Great Lakes; Cpl. George Morton, home from Camp Ellis, Ill., and Charles Parker home from Indiantown Gap.
