

Miller, Kenneth E.

Checking Up

WITH THE AAF ENGINEER COMMAND IN ITALY—A truck driver who has traveled thousands of miles throughout North Africa and Italy, hauling gravel to airfields, Corporal Technician Kenneth E. Miller, above, of Quakertown, checks his oil gauge after a "run." Member of the veteran 21st Engineer Aviation Regiment, Cpl. Miller has been overseas 2½ years, during which time he has worked on scores of airfields responsible for launching the great fleets of Allied planes that helped crumble the onemighty Third Reich. His wife and 3-year-old son, Kenneth, live at 232 Helbertown Avenue, Quakertown.

June 26, 1945