tion, "somewhere in Germany", since December 16.

He enlisted in June, 1941, and served for 21 months as a member of an anti-aircraft unit, stationed at Kingston, Jamaica and later in Puerto Rico. Returning to the United States he was assigned to an infantry unit and received training at Camp Stewart, Ga., and Camp Atterbury. He was sent overseas in September of last year. Before entering the service he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

A brother, Staff Sergeant John Kametler, is with the Eighth Air Force, based in England.
