

Colver, Jane

Promoted

JAN 20 1945

Grace Jane Colver, H. A. 2-c, U. S. N. R., has been promoted to Hospital Apprentice First Class following a special course in physio-therapy at the U. S. Naval Hospital, New Orleans, La. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Colver, Nazareth R. 3, H. A. Colver enlisted in the WAVES in June, 1944, and began boot training on August 10 at Hunter College, Bronx, New York City. Upon completion of her boot training she was assigned to hospital corpsman school at Bethesda Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Md., and was graduated on October 12. At the conclusion of a recent 7-day leave, she took up her assignment at New Orleans, La., where she is stationed at present. A graduate of Nazareth High School, she was employed as bookkeeper at Bassett Cleaning Company, Easton, before entering the WAVES.

January 20, 1945