

Bellhorn, William H Jr

Former Bank Worker
Made Tech. Sergeant

S/Sgt. William H. Bellhorn Jr., USMC, a former employe of the Union Bank & Trust Company, has been promoted to the rank of technical sergeant. Sgt. Bellhorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bellhorn Sr., Mauch Chunk, entered the service in 1942, and served his boot training at Parris Island. After ten months duty at Quantico in the paymaster's office, he was shipped to the South Pacific. He is now attached to the Office of the Special Disbursing Agent, 6th Defense Battalion, U. S. Marines, at Midway.

Aug 23, 1945