Pfc. Frank Tilli Dies in Action, Wife is Told

FEB 17 1945

Word was received in Bangor last evening that Pfc. Frank Tilli of the United States Army was killed in action on the island of Luzon in the Philippines on January 26. He entered the service in June, 1941; received basic training at Camp Wheeler, Ga., and other training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and St. Lewis Obispo, Calif. He went overseas in July, 1943, spending six months at Hawaii and a year in New Guinea.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Nellie Camponigro Tilli, formerly of Bangor and now of Pen Argyl; his mother, Mrs. Mary Tilli, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Christy Guerro, of Pen Argyl; Pvt. Andrew Tilli of the United States Army now in Germany; Grace, Lucy, Daniel and Michael, at home.
