ELWOOD SEIFERT

JOHN ANDREWS

Thanks to a chaplain interrupting a chow line, Corporal Elwood Seifert met his brother-in-law, John Andrews, U. S. N., somewhere in the Philippines, January 25. John, who had been on duty with the Merchant Marines in the South Pacific, contacted Elwood's chaplain, who arranged the meeting. John Andrews enlisted over a year ago and completed his boot training at Sampson, N. Y. He has been on active duty aboard ship since last July. His wife, the former Ella Seifert, and son reside with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Seifert, 244 Main Street, Freemansburg. Elwood Seifert was inducted in July, 1943, and completed his basic training at Camp Borden, Ga., before going overseas in February of last year. He was recently promoted to his present rating.
