

Gonzalez, Ernest

MARINE ENLISTEE FETED.

Pedro Gonzalez held at his home, 104 Mechanic Street, a farewell party for his son, Ernest, who is leaving to join the U. S. Marines. Before his enlistment young Gonzalez attended the Bethlehem schools and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company at the Northampton plant.

During the evening, Ernest and his sister, Sarah, gave an exhibition of rhumbas and tangos. Singing and playing of the DeLeon sisters, Esther and Carmen, with music furnished by Ramon Salgado and Anthony Vascuez provided the entertainment. Dancing and refreshments were enjoyed. The honored guest received many gifts.

Those attending were Misses Mary and Felicia Alonzo, Madge Crothoumel, Sophie and Cecelia Cortez, Dot Daniels, Nena Gonzalez, Esther, Tomasa and Carmen DeLeon, Olga and Lilly Orta, Rachel Lopez, Lina and Beatrice Gorza, Angela Lorezo, Dorothy Opp, Ventura, Sophie and Claria Martinez, Dolores, Angeline and Mary Lou Maiz, Connie Vallone,
