

Stofko, William

S/Sgt. William Stofko
Reenlists in Army
While in Germany

S/Sgt. William Stofko, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stofko, 709 Atlantic street, who returned to his home Monday evening after serving 13 months overseas, re-enlisted for another three years' service in the U. S. Army.

S Sgt. Stofko is a veteran of the Rhineland and Central Germany campaigns, and holds the following decorations: ETO ribbon with two battle participation stars; American Theatre ribbon; Victory ribbon; Good Conduct Medal and Bronze Star.

The staff sergeant completed his basic training at Fort Bragg, N. C., before going overseas with the 100th Infantry Division. He re-enlisted while in Muhlacher, Germany, before shipping home to the States.
