

Drauch, Leidy

VETERAN "ROOKIE"
PROMOTED APR 2 1943

Leidy Drauch, who served in the first World War with the rank of captain and who enlisted for duty in the present conflict as a buck private, has become a corporal, according to a letter he recently wrote to Walter J. Young, clerk of Quarter Sessions. Corp. Drauch said he expects to enter officer candidate school soon.

The veteran "rookie," who resides along Bethlehem R. D. 2, formerly was a deputy in the office of County Treasurer Howard P.

Koch. He entered the service six months ago.
