RETURNS TO CAMP

Pfc. Andrew P. Nicholson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley O. Nicholson, 112 West Market Street, has returned to Camp McCay after spending a 13-day furlough at his home.

Pfc. Nicholson entered the Army last January and received his preliminary training at Camp Joseph Robinson, Arkansas; from there being transferred to Fort Meade. He completed three months of rugged maneuvering at A. P. Hill, Va., and then was shipped to his present location.

Nicholson has received the experts medal for the 66 mm. Mortar Hand Grenade and Bayonet. Also sharpshooter's medal for light machine gunning and for firing the carbine, M1 rifle and pistol.

At present he is undergoing Winter-time training in the way of skiing, etc., at Camp McCay.
