

Happl, Louis

GRANTED LEAVE

Louis Happl, seaman second class, son of Mrs. Anna Happl, of 1274 East Third Street, Bethlehem, and John Joseph Martinko, seaman second class, son of Abilio Martinko, of 623 East Morton Street, Bethlehem, have been granted leave following completion of their basic training at the U. S. Naval Training Station, Sampson, N. Y.

Both young men are now eligible for further assignment where additional instruction will be given. Upon completion of this next step in their naval careers, Bluejackets Martinko and Happl may qualify for a petty officer rating.

May 19, 1943