

Weikert, Harry T.

Back From Battle

NOV 20 1944

Harry T. Weikert, son of Mrs. John Reiser, 1066 Second Avenue, Hellertown, arrived home Saturday after having received a medical discharge from the naval hospital at Santa Cruz, California. He had been hospitalized there for several months.

The young man was a member of the Fourth Marine Division which took part in the Marshall Island invasion and the battle of Saipan. He was wounded in the latter battle and was returned to the States.

His rating was that of hospital attendant second class and he enlisted in the Navy in the fall of 1942 and later was transferred to the fleet Marines. He graduated from the Hellertown High School in 1942.

November 20, 1944