

Serving with one of Uncle Sam's fighting units," somewhere in Belgium," Elias Edward Korn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Korn Sr., of 222 Crest Avenue, has been advanced to the rank of PFC, according to information received by his parents.

He was inducted into the armed forces in December, 1942, and received his preliminary training at Fort Meyers, Va. He is a former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

A brother, Sergeant Samuel Korn, is serving with an infantry unit in France.