

Harpel, Harry C.

Service For Slain Soldier
On Sunday Morning

The congregation of St. John's Evangelical Church, North Street, near New, will pay tribute Sunday, Oct. 10, at the 11 a. m. service to the first member to die in the service of his country in World War II.

Rev. A. M. Gottschalk, pastor, will conduct the memorial rite honoring Pfc. Harry C. Harpel, whose death Sept. 9 in North Africa was announced in yesterday's Globe-Times.

St. John's service flag will now have one gold star.
