

Romano, Ralph

RALPH ROMANO

WILLIAM ROMANO

YORKTOWN SURVIVORS TO BE FETED HERE SATURDAY—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Romano, of Roseto, grandparents of Ralph and William Romano, two Marines aboard the carrier Yorktown when she was sunk on June 4, are happy over their safety. The two boys arrived in Philadelphia on Saturday and this coming Saturday are to be party guests of their uncles and aunts, residents of Bethlehem and Roseto, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Domenic Romano, 1434 Center Street, this city.

ROSETO PAYS TRIBUTE TO ROMANO BROTHERS

Pair Reunited Three Days After Boat Is Sunk—Careers Lifelong Parallels.

for a while. I was picked up by a small boat. No one had seen or heard of Bill. I felt pretty bad but guess who was waiting for me when I was transferred to a destroyer on the third day? Yep, Bill!"

October 12, 1942