

Tyson, James R.

To Become Pilot

PIRRIN FIELD, Tex.—Aviation Cadet James R. Tyson, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse R. Tyson, Sr., of Bethlehem, has arrived to begin his basic pilot training at this Army Air Forces school. For nine weeks, Cadet Tyson will divide his training day equally between ground school and the cockpit of his 450-horsepower plane. Upon leaving here the Bethlehem cadet will go to an advanced pilot school where he will receive his silver wings at graduation.

NOV 13 1943

November 13, 1943