

Barndt, George H.

RETURNS TO DREXEL

Cadet George H. Barndt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Barndt, Bethlehem Route 4, returned to Drexel Institute of Technology after spending a five-day furlough with his parents. He received his basic training at Little Rock, Arkansas, and then was transferred to Drexel Institute, where he completed a three months course and was enrolled for another three-months advanced course.

OCT 12, 1943