

Minnich, Aaron T.

Northampton Board Sends 54 Selectees 20 1943

Fifty-four Northampton residents from Board 2 with headquarters at Siegfried, were accepted at the Allentown induction center yesterday.

Of this number, 23 were taken by the Army; 24 by the Navy; two by the Marine Corps and three by the Coast Guard, while two men passed examinations qualifying for pilot training with the Army Air Corps. They were Lewis M. Stupits and John Hillenbrand, who were accepted as air cadets.

Henry R. Roth and Arthur G. Unger were taken into the Marine Corps, and those who will serve with the Coast Guard are Melvin H. Becker, Albert P. Gehret and Clyde M. Roberts, Jr.

Those who will go into the Army after a three-week furlough are Russell A. Hantz, William J. Stangi, Edward H. Boyer, Frank S. Stanz, Alvin S. Gold, Carl T. Edelman, Louis F. Ifkovits, Edward A. Binder, Charles P. Fehnel, Harrison M. Kressley, George Drabik, Elwood G. Gehris, Emil J. Zelena, Harold Miller, Joseph Sinkevitch, Joseph L. Margolis, Frank T. Schmidt, Russell W. Lerch, Frank S. Steier, Kenneth F. Spitko, Karl J. Hall, Mike F. Wanitzky and Kenneth O. Benninger.

Selected for the Navy were Aaron T. Minnich, Leroy E. Stroh, Thomas W. Beitelman, Joseph A. Karo, Carl J. Koehler, John J. Unger, David H. Parry, Stephen H. Greitzer, John Krinda, John Kuchinas, Harold G. Druckenmiller, Henry T. Kostenbader, Samuel Weiner, Herman S. Truk, Roy T. Kostenbader, George Bittenbender, Russell L. Knappenberger, Frank J. Fodor, Albert J. Molchan, George C. Coleman, Louis J. Bendekovitz, John J. Siekonie, Truman R. Heffelfinger and Joseph V. Colarusso.

Oct. 20, 1943