

Gyorek, William J.

Sgt. William J. Gyorek
Receives Discharge

The war ended officially for S./Sgt. William J. Gyorek Tuesday, when he received his honorable discharge at the Indiantown Gap Separation Center, after 26 months overseas. He is the son of George Gyorek, 473 Verona Street.

Gyorek entered the Army in November, 1942, after leaving his job with the Bethlehem Steel Company. He trained at Miami Beach, Fla., and Albuquerque, N. M., before sailing for England. He arrived in Boston from Marseilles on the Lincoln Victory November 8.

November 15, 1945