

Fluck, Charles H. A.

Marine Promoted

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Fluck, of 1045 Easton Road, Hellertown, that their son, Charles H. A. Fluck, serving with the Marine Corps somewhere in the Hawaiian Islands has been made Corporal. He enlisted in the Marines in July, 1942, and received his boot training at Parris Island, S. C., and received further training in field telephone at New River, N. C. He was stationed at Camp Elliott at San Diego, Calif., from March, 1943, until June 29, 1943, at which time he left the country to participate in the raid on Kiska in the Aleutians. On September 2 he returned to California and ten days later left the country again to serve somewhere in the Hawaiian Islands. On May 10 he was married to the former Gladys Gerstenberg, of Riegelsville, in San Diego, Calif.
