

Murray Jr., Francis

Francis A. Murray
Gets Major Rating
At Indiantown

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa.—Capt. Francis A. Murray Jr., has been promoted to major, according to Brig. Gen. Malcolm F. Lindsey, commanding general at Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, where Murray is control officer. Major and Mrs. Murray, the former Irene Brown, reside at 266 Tenth Avenue, Bethlehem.

Formerly based in Bethlehem as Eastern Pennsylvania factory representative for Certain-Teed Products Corp., the major was inducted in March, 1941, as a private. He was commissioned a second lieutenant less than a year later, after completing officer candidate school at Fort Belvoir, Va.

Subsequently he transferred to Camp Reynolds, Pa., where he was successively a company commander, battalion training officer, assistant control officer and control officer. He was assigned to Indiantown Gap last December and has been control officer since.

December 3, 1945